

We are an Upper Monroe neighborhood community of faith. In response to God’s love, and with an emphasis on children/youth and families, Young Adults, and the needs of our neighborhood, we:

- Connect neighbors to neighbors in order to provide and receive support;
- Foster interactions among neighbors by reaching out and pulling in;
- Encourage neighbor generated initiatives that develop connectivity and interaction and interaction among Upper Monroe Avenue neighbors with an emphasis on youth and families, young adults, drug/alcohol addicts and the unemployed.

Priority: Alignment with the Call above

Eligibility: A combination of the congregation and the neighborhood working together

Description of Call (project) _____
_____ Details can be attached.

Who from the congregation will be involved and what will their roll be? _____

Who from the neighborhood will be involved and what will their roll be? _____

What is the timeline? (dates if available) _____

Where would this take place? _____

If space is required at New Life, which room/s? Indicate schedule of space needed, if known. _____

How does this project fit the “Call to Adventure”? _____

Budget Revenues? _____ From what source? _____

Expenses? _____ Who is paying? _____

How much time will be needed, if any, from staff for what tasks? _____

Congregation? _____

Community volunteers? _____

How do people get involved? _____

Is there a Christian component to the Call? _____ If so, what? _____

The Presbyterian Church requires that the Session make final decisions. The Session is responsible for the Christian direction, funding, staffing, and overall health of the church, and not spreading ourselves and resources too thinly. Therefore, proposals should be submitted to the Session for approval. Please talk with a couple of coaches of your choice before submission of this Call to streamline the process for the Session. Coaches are Nancy Allinger, Duane Basch, Janis Castrogiovanni, Barbara Durfee, David Durfee, Barbara Ford, Helen Fradenburgh, Tedd Pullano, and Judy Wandtke.

Signature of Coach

Signature of Coach

Signature of Congregational Representative

Signature of Community Representative

Date of Submission to the Session _____